Maryland has a new Head Football Coach in Joe Krivak. However Krivak is in his ninth year at Maryland and eight of the nine assistant coaches elected to remain with him on the Terrapin staff.

The offense has nine starters returning but did lose three fine running backs in Alvin Blount, Tommy Neal and Stephon Scriber.

The defense has six starters returning but lost three All-ACC selections in Guard Bruce Mesner, Linebacker Chuck Faucette and Cornerback Keeta Covington. Mesner was a three time all-league selection while Faucette and Covington made the all-league team twice each.

The interior defense appears strong but the coaching staff is concerned with the lack of experience and depth on the perimeters. There are seven lettermen to fill the three down lineman positions.

There are only three lettermen returning at the outside linebacker positions and only four lettermen returning to fill the new four deep secondary. Only one letterman has game experience at the cornerback position.

BY POSITION

OFFENSE—

QUARTERBACK—Dan Henning returns from a record setting season as he established passing records for yards, attempts and completions in a single game and a season, along with total offense records. He is backed up by Neil O'Donnell who threw three touchdown passes in the spring game and Redshirt Freshman Scott Zolak.

RUNNING BACK—Bren Lowery finished strong in '86 with 104 yards on 14 carries against Virginia in the season finale and Mike Anderson had a fine spring. Arnold Walker joins the backfield this fall as a redshirt freshman who did not participate in 1986.

FULLBACK—Dennis Spinelli and Keith Bullock are both lettermen but Spinelli had only six carries in '86 and Bullock had only four carries in '85 and did not carry the ball last fall. Jack Bradford moved over from outside linebacker to join the offensive backfield in the spring. Richard Shure is a two year letterman but has concentrated on the special teams.

TIGHT END—Terps have one of the best in the nation in Ferrell Edmunds. He is backed up by Letterman Blaine Rose. Derek Jennings and Kevin Hudak add depth to the position. Edmunds has been rated by many of the pre-season magazines as one of the top two ends in the nation after catching 28 passes for 490 yards last fall.

WIDE RECEIVERS—Rated as one of the best receiving combinations in the nation. Azizuddin Abdur-Ra'oof, James Milling and Vernon Joines all have experience as starters and John Bonato caught 15 passes and had a 19.3

average as a backup in '86. Abdur-Ra'oof is returning from an Achilles Tendon injury that caused him to miss the final seven games of the '86 season. He has enrolled in graduate schol after receiving his degree in May. Milling had 33 receptions for 650 yards and 19.7 average in '86 while Joines caught 28 for 395 yards. Barry Johnson, Norris Hanes and Pat Staines add additional depth.

CENTER—Co-Captain Bill Hughes gives the Terps a solid starter. He has also started at guard and tackle but returned to center when John Rugg was injured in the 1986 opener. Mark Hofland is the backup center with Redshirt Freshman Frank Namath also at center. Both starting guards Rugg and Dave Amend have started at center in the past.

GUARDS—Dave Amend and John Rugg are both established starters. Rugg opened the '86 season at center but moved to guard after suffering an elbow injury in the opener. Amend has lettered as a defensive guard, starting center and starting guard. Joe Giuliano and Richard Nelson are lettermen returning. Tony Franciscus and Chris Gunnels add depth at guard.

TACKLE—John Sorna and Mark Agent are both Honor Roll students at tackle. Agent was on the All-ACC Academic team in '86 and Sorna on the '87 ACC Honor Roll. Ben Jefferson returns as a letterman from the 1985 team while Ken Oberle and Clarence Jones move up as redshirt freshmen. Oberle is also an Honor Roll student. Terry Murphy and Rich Salgado are also tackle candidates.

DEFENSE—

NOSE GUARD—Co-Captain Bob Arnold had a fine spring at nose guard with Mike Kiselak settling in behind him after also working at tackle. Richard Fleece, a redshirt freshman provides the depth.

TACKLE—Robert Klein, a letterman guard in '86, settled into the starting left tackle slot while Warren Powers and Duane Dunham shared the right tackle spot in the spring. Dunham has earned three letters while Powers has lettered twice. Wayne Brunson, a two year letterman and letterman James Wilson backed up Klein in the spring while Mark Pizzo returns from the '85 team. He was injured prior to the '86 season.

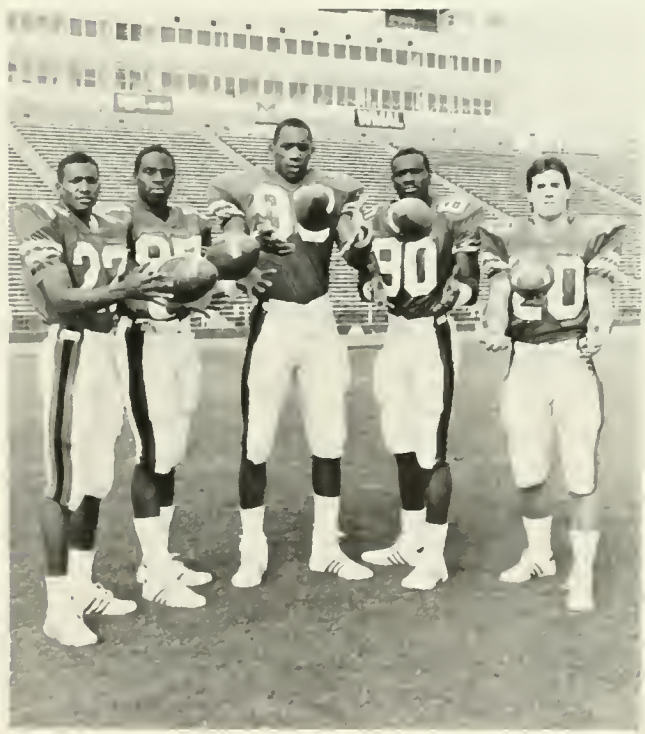
INSIDE LINEBACKER—Kevin Walker and Richie Petitbon are both three year lettermen. Walker is considered one of the best athletes on the squad and an All-American candidate. Walker, Petitbon and Chuck Faucette shared most of the playing time in '86. Matt D'Amico, Scott Whittier and Scott Saylor are lettermen reserves with Whittier moving from the outside. Glenn Page is a redshirt freshman.

OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS—O'Brien Alston and Sean Scott return as solid starters. Mark Walsh is a letterman returning. Karl Edwards, Bob Rushnak and Richard Mann are redshirt freshmen bidding for playing time.

CORNERBACK—Irvin Smith, a two year letterman, is the only cornerback with game experience but there is talent and speed among the newcomers. Mike Hollis was hampered by injuries in the spring as was Johnny Vessels. Dean Green, a redshirt freshman who did not participate in the spring could join the cornerbacks in the fall. Charles Gassaway is a sophomore candidate.

SAFETY—J. B. Brown returns as a starter and will fill the strong safety spot. Letterman Chad Sydnor has filled the free safety position. Letermen Leon Bray and Tim Gaarn are available as backups. Kevin Folkes has made a strong bid for playing time somewhere in the secondary.

KICKERS—Dan Ploeki returns as one of the most consistent placekickers in the league while Darryl Wright returns as a punter. Wright has been the punter for three years but did not participate in the spring while concentrating on his classroom work. A decision on the return specialists will be made in the fall. Keeta Covington had handled most of the returns the past two years.



The Receivers — 22 James Milling, 87 Azizuddin Abdur-Ra'oof, 93 Ferrell Edmunds, 80 Vernon Joines, 20 John Bonato

Lew Perkins
Director of Athletics

Lew Perkins assumed the duties as Director of Intercollegiate Athletics on June 8, 1987. It was obvious to everyone that a new era of intercollegiate athletics was underway at Maryland.

In announcing the appointment of Perkins as the Maryland AD, on May 11, Chancellor John Slaughter said "He has demonstrated exceptional skills in management. He has an outstanding ability to make tough fiscal decisions when they are necessary and he has a clear philosophy that a sound athletic program must place its highest priority on supporting the academic program of the institution."

Perkins had gained a reputation as an outstanding administrator while serving as the Director of Athletics at Wichita State University for four years. He spent countless hours fostering university and community relations and building a solid working relationship with the NCAA and athletic programs around the country.

Results of his efforts were rewarded in 1985 when the NCAA, in an unprecedented move, cited Wichita State for running an exemplary program. The Arizona Republic newspaper soon after rated Perkins one of the top 25 athletic directors in the nation.

Perkins philosophy for direction of the 16 sport varsity intercollegiate program at Wichita State was that "winning is the most important thing in the world but not at the expense of the student-athlete or institution." His concern for the welfare of the student-athlete was confirmed when he instituted the Athletic Director's Honor Roll to honor Wichita State student-athletes maintaining a 3.0 grade point average or better. In the first two years of his honor roll program, 212 athletes were recognized for their academic achievements.

A native of Chelsea, Massachusetts, Perkins has been active in collegiate athletics since he graduated from Chelsea High in 1963. He was the top basketball scorer in the Boston area that year, averaging over 35 points a game.

He attended the University of Iowa where he earned three letters in basketball as the Hawkeyes recorded a 47-25 record. As a senior, he received the Tony Cordaro Memorial Award in recognition of his achievements on the basketball court and in the classroom.

He received his Bachelor of Science degree from Iowa in 1967 and in 1969 received certification in Physical Education. In 1975, he earned a master's degree in Guidance and Counseling from the University of South Carolina-Columbia.

Upon leaving Iowa he became the Athletic Director and Head Basketball Coach at the University of South Carolina-Aiken where he remained for 11 years. He took USC-Aiken from junior college to four year status and built a strong athletic program.

He served as Associate Athletics Director at the University of Pennsylvania from 1980 to 1983. While at Penn he was responsible for the day-to-day operation of an athletic program that included 28 varsity sports. He handled many responsibilities while at Penn, including supervising and monitoring NCAA and Ivy League rules and regulations.

At Maryland, Perkins oversees a department fielding NCAA teams in 23 sports and operating on an annual budget of $8.7 million. The department has over 90 full-time employees.

Perkins was born on March 24, 1945. He is married to the former Gwen Flaum. Gwen has her BA degree from the University of Iowa and a Master's in Education from the University of South Carolina where she is also a Doctoral candidate.

They have two daughters Amy, 16, a volleyball player in high school, and Holly 14. Holly is active in all sports but favors golf.

Joseph John Krivak

Joe Krivak was named the Head Football Coach at the University of Maryland on Wednesday, December 10, 1986 and immediately assumed the head coaching duties that included finding his own replacement.

Krivak had only to move down the hall to his new office as he had coached the Maryland Quarterbacks and Receivers the past five years. He first arrived at Maryland in 1974 and coached the Terrapin Tight Ends and Receivers for three years. Then in 1977 he joined George Welsh at the U.S. Naval Academy, coaching the Quarterbacks and Receivers for five years.

He has worked with outstanding coaches throughout his football career, playing and coaching for Ben Schwartzwalder at Syracuse, Jerry Claiborne and Bobby Ross at Maryland and Welsh at Navy.

Krivak has been associated with collegiate football for 21 years including three as a player at Syracuse. Teams he has been associated with have an aggregate record of 142 wins, 85 losses and four ties.

As a linebacker, guard and center he earned three letters at Syracuse while winning 16 of 25 games that included a Cotton Bowl loss to TCU 28-27 in 1956.

After graduating in 1957 he moved on to Weirton, West Virginia where he served as the Head Football Coach for eight years and Head Basketball Coach for five years. His Madonna High football teams won a State Catholic Championship, two Ohio Valley titles and recorded 50 wins with 24 losses and two ties. He also won 66 percent of his basketball games with one state championship and a runner-up berth.

During his eight years at Maryland the Terrapins have a 67-26-2 record. They have won six Atlantic Coast Conference Championships with a combined record of 39 wins, four losses and one tie. Also the Terps have visited seven bowls in the eight years with trips to the Liberty, Gator, Cotton, Aloha, Florida Citrus, Sun and Cherry Bowls.

During his five years at Navy the Midshipmen had a 36-21-1 record and visited three bowls, the Holiday, Garden State and Liberty.

He has visited the Cotton Bowl twice as he also played in the 1956 game.

Krivak received his B.A. from Syracuse in 1957 and his M.A. in 1962. In addition to earning three letters in football for the Orangemen he also lettered twice in baseball.

He has coached both the quarterbacks and receivers the past five years and three of the quarterbacks are currently in the National Football league with Boomer Esiason at Cincinnati, and Frank Reich and Stan Gelbaugh both at Buffalo. John Tice the leading receiver as a tight end in 1983 is now with New Orleans in the NFL.

Krivak has been in the press box on Saturdays for the past five years calling the offensive plays for the Terrapins. During those five years his four quarterbacks, Boomer Esiason (two years), Frank Reich, Stan Galbaugh and Dan Henning have been the most prolific passers in Maryland history. Esiason, Gelbaugh and now Henning, all established new Maryland passing and total offense marks for both a single game and season.

Krivak was in the press box calling the plays when Maryland made the greatest comeback in NCAA football history with a 42-40 win over Miami in 1984 as Miami took a 31-0 halftime lead. The same year he saw his quarterback engineer a comeback in the Sun Bowl 28-27 over Tennessee after trailing 21-0 at the half.

In his last 13 years teams Krivak has worked with have visited 10 Bowls while winning 103 games against 47 losses and three ties.

Krivak was born in Central City, Pennsylvania on March 20, 1935. He married the former Jean M. Irvin, a native of Weirton, West Virginia, and graduate of Steubenville Central.

They have three sons. Edward was born on January 19, 1963, John on May 4, 1964 and Jeff on October 25, 1967. Ed and John both graduated in the spring of 1987 with Ed getting his degree from Maryland and John from Richmond. Jeff is a Junior at Maryland.

Joe Krivak first went to Syracuse as a football player from Shade Township High. He will return to Syracuse in September to make his debut as the Head Football Coach of the University of Maryland. The Terps and Orangemen open the season on September 5. His second game will be in Byrd Stadium against the Virginia Cavaliers and George Welsh.

Assistant Coaches

James C. Cavanaugh (William & Mary '70)
Offensive Coordinator & Quarterbacks

Jim Cavanaugh is one of seven assistants who elected to remain in College Park to work with Joe Krivak. It will be his sixth year with the Terrapins and eleventh year in the Atlantic Coast Conference, having worked with North Carolina State and Virginia.

He will serve as offensive coordinator and quarterback coach under Krivak after coaching the running backs the past five years.

An honorable mention All-America wide receiver at William & Mary, Cavanaugh began his coaching career at North Carolina State as a graduate assistant to Lou Holtz. After receiving his Master's Degree in Education at State he moved to VMI where he coached the wide receivers in 1974 and '75 and runningbacks in 1976 for Bob Thalman.

In 1977 he returned to N.C. State where he coached the receivers for two seasons under Bo Rein.

In 1979 he accepted the job as offensive coordinator at Marshall under Sonny Randall. He then returned to the ACC, coaching the wide receivers for Dick Bestwick at Virginia in 1981 and joined Bobby Ross at Maryland in 1982.

While a student at William & Mary he caught 117 passes for 1,600 yards and was an All-Southern Conference selection.

He served two years in Newport News, Virginia, following graduation with a year each at Newport News High and Denbigh High.

Cavanaugh was born in Queens, N.Y. on Aug. 4, 1948 and attended Chaminade High. His wife, Marsha, is a graduate of Mississippi University for Women and a native of Atlanta, Georgia. They have two children, Ryan and Lauren.

George Foussekis (Virginia Tech '68)
Assistant Head Coach—Inside Linebackers

George Foussekis is in his sixteenth year as a Terrapin assistant coach having moved to Maryland with Jerry Claiborne in 1972. He is serving his sixth year as the Assistant Head Coach having served five years with Bobby Ross in that capacity.

He began his coaching career at Virginia Tech in 1969 and worked with the defensive line for two years. In 1971 he served as the defensive coordinator at William & Mary replacing Bobby Ross as he moved to Rice University. In 1972 he moved to College Park, joining Jerry Claiborne's staff. He served 10 years with Claiborne here at Maryland and elected to remain when Claiborne and most of his staff moved to Kentucky. He then served five years with Ross and again elected to remain with Joe Krivak in College Park.

Foussekis achieved All-American recognition for three years while playing for the Virginia Tech Gobblers and was on the 1966 Liberty Bowl team. He signed with the Denver Broncos in 1968 but returned to Tech for the 1969 season.

He has developed an All-American defensive guard in Paul Vellano a first team selection by the American Football Coaches Association in 1973 and in 1984 an All-American linebacker in Eric Wilson, a first team selection by the Football News and second team by the Associated Press.

He has been especially effective recruiting in his native state of Virginia. His recruits include Walter White, Lloyd Burruss, and Wilson (Charlottesville), and Steve Atkins (Spotsylvania) who all moved on to the NFL.

Foussekis is a graduate of Lane High in Charlottesville, Virginia where he captained the football, basketball and baseball teams. He was named the MVP in all three sports. His 1963 football team at Lane High won the state championship and he was named first team All-State.

He has visited 11 bowls in his 15 years at Maryland and between bowl trips found time to earn his Master's Degree in Education from Bowie State College.

The 41 year old bachelor was born on April 28, 1946 in Charlottesville, Virginia.

Jeffrey Mann (William & Mary '71)
Special Teams & Tight Ends

A Baltimore native who earned his Master's Degree from Towson State in January 1982, Jeff Mann is in his sixth year as a Terrapin Assistant. His Master's Degree was in secondary Education with emphasis in Athletic Administration.

He played football and lacrosse at Loyola High and William & Mary where he played on the Southern Conference Football Champions in 1970 and in the Tangerine Bowl. He taught and coached at Stratford Junior High in Arlington, Virginia, 1971-73, at Towson High, 1973-79 and Loyola High, 1975-76.

He served as assistant football coach at Towson State in 1979 and taught and coached wrestling at Dundalk High.

He joined the Terps in 1982 after managing the Metro Nautilus Fitness Center in Dundalk, Maryland.

His special teams have excelled over the years with Rick Badanjek leading the ACC in Punt Returns in 1983 with an 11.1 average, Keeta Covington in 1984 with 10.5 average and Covington in Kickoff Returns in 1985 with 23.2 average.

Jess Atkinson is now the placekicker for the Washington Redskins in the NFL after scoring 308 points for the Terps, including 128 of 131 PAT attempts, and 60 of 82 field goals. Current kicker Dan Plocki has hit 49 of 49 PAT's and 22 of 27 field goal attempts.

Mann was born on May 15, 1949. He and his wife Karen have two daughters, Stacy and Molly.

Dennis M. Murphy (Notre Dame '63)
Defensive Line

Denny Murphy is another of the six year veterans of the Maryland coaching staff, having joined the Terrapins in 1982.

He coached the defensive guards in the past but will work with all three down linemen in Maryland's new multiple front defense, having switched from the wide tackle six.

He moved to Maryland from Eastern Michigan where he served as the offensive coordinator for four years.

He began his coaching career at Notre Dame where he had lettered three times as a tight end and defensive end. He played in the North-South Shrine game in Miami and then signed with the Los Angeles Rams. However he played at Pensacola Naval Air Station. He served from 1963-68 as a Naval Flight Officer and was awarded five Air Medals for combat support missions as Airborne Air Intercept Controller while on deployment to Southeast Asia.

He joined Ara Parseghian as a Graduate Assistant in 1968 and then coached the freshmen, '69-71, while earning his Master's Degree from Notre Dame. He was the junior varsity coach, '72-74, before moving to Colgate in '75 as offensive line coach.

He served as defensive coordinator at Holy Cross in '76 and '77 and moved to Eastern Michigan in 1978.

He was born in Endicott, New York on October 22, 1940. He and his wife Cindy (Coronado, California) have four children, Michelle, Kristen, Lisa and Kevin.

Richard M. Portee (Eastern Illinois '65)
Receivers

Dick Portee, also a six year member of the Terrapin staff, has moved to offense this fall coaching the receivers after five years working with Maryland's outside linebackers teaching them how to break up passes and tackle quarterbacks.

He came to Maryland from Cornell where he served as the defensive backfield coach for four years and recruiting coordinator for a year.

He joined the Cornell staff in 1977 and in addition to on the field coaching duties and recruiting, was in charge of the film exchange and was responsible for the eligibility of all football players. He also served as the liaison to the office of Minority Educational Affairs.

He began his coaching career at Eisenhower High in Decatur, Illinois as assistant football and basketball coach and the tennis coach. He coached and taught at Eisenhower High for five years before moving to Illinois State as the freshman football coach. He was the defensive coordinator and secondary coach and also taught at Illinois State from 1969 to 1974.

In 1972 he was named Assistant Athletic Director in charge of eligibility for all athletes along with other administrative duties. From 1974 to 1976 he also coached the offensive backfield and wide receivers as assistant football coach.

He was a three year letterman in football and baseball and two year letterman in basketball at Eisenhower High and four year letterman in football as an offensive and defensive back for Eastern Illinois.

His field of study at Eastern Illinois was Health and Physical Science and he received his Master's from Illinois State in a similar field of study in 1971.

He was born on April 20, 1942. He and his wife Dorothy have two children, Danny and Ryan.

Kurt Van Valkenburgh (Springfield College '71)
Defensive Ends

Kurt Van Valkenburgh joined the Terrapins in time for spring practice in 1986 after four years at Vanderbilt where he served as defensive coordinator, linebacker coach and secondary coach. He coached the defensive tackles in 1986 and will work with the outside linebackers (defensive ends) this fall.

One of his top players at Vanderbilt, Leonard Coleman was a first-round selection in the 1974 NFL draft after setting a school record for career interceptions.

A graduate of Springfield College in Massachusettes, Van Valkenburgh earned his Master's in Education from SUNY-Albany in 1974. He began his coaching career at SUNY-Albany as a linebacker coach in 1974 and moved on to Union (N.Y.) College in 1977 where he spent one season as defensive coordinator and secondary coach.

He then accepted the secondary coach job at Colgate where he stayed for four years before taking a similar position at Virginia in 1981. The following year he moved to Vanderbilt.

Born April 13, 1949 in Schenectady, N.Y., Van Valkenburgh and his wife Marilyn have three children, Heather, Brock and Melissa.

Greg Williams (North Carolina State '68)
Defensive Coordinator and Defensive Backs

Greg Williams came to Maryland from L.S.U. and is in his sixth year on the Terrapin staff. He was a defensive back for the North Carolina State Wolfpack for three years, 1965-67, and coached the Wolfpack secondary in 1978 before moving to L.S.U. with the State staff.

Williams played in the Liberty Bowl with the Wolfpack and since has coached in the Peach, Aloha, Florida Citrus and Sun Bowls.

He began his coaching career at Youngstown State in 1969 and joined Tulsa in 1971 coaching the defensive backs at both schools. In 1974 he moved to West Virginia as defensive coordinator again working with the backs.

In 1976 he moved to Texas Christian and coached the quarterbacks, running backs and served as offensive coordinator during his two years there.

He played his high school football, basketball and baseball at Danville High, Pennsylvania where he was born on October 20, 1946.

Williams ruptured his achilles tendon in a racket ball game prior to spring practice and spent the spring coaching from a golf cart while installing Maryland's new multiple defense.

He and his wife Mary Anne have three children Shelly, Beth and Gavin.

Tony Whittlesey (DePauw '69)
Running Backs

The first order of business for Joe Krivak as the Maryland football coach was the hiring of Tony Whittlesey to take his place on the coaching staff. Krivak had worked with Whittlesey at Navy for four years, 1978-81.

Whittlesey, an assistant with George Welsh at Virginia the past five years, is returning home as a native of nearby Kensington and a product of St. John's where captained the football team and also played basketball.

He played his collegiate football at DePauw for former Maryland Quarterback and Coach Tommy Mont.

After receiving his Bachelor of Arts Degree in History in 1969 he joined the DePauw staff as a graduate assistant and head coach of the freshman team. He received his Master of Arts Degree in Education in 1970 and immediately joined the Hanover College staff as the defensive coordinator for five years.

In 1975 he was named the Head Football Coach at Bluffton College in Ohio. He then served as the offensive coordinator at the University of Dayton for the 1977 season when the Flyers were 8-3.

He joined the Navy staff in 1978, coaching the defensive ends for three years and then the linebackers in 1981. He moved to Virginia with Welsh in 1982 and continued to coach the linebackers for the next five years.

With experience on both sides of the ball and as head coach of a Division III school, Krivak rated Whittlesey as an asset to the Maryland football program.

Whittlesey's father Merrell covered Maryland football for many years and retired as a sportswriter with the Washington Star. His parents still reside in Kensington.

Tony was born on October 2, 1946. He and his wife, the former Penny Weed of Cleveland, Ohio, have two children, Matthew and Molly.

John Zernhelt (Maryland '77)
Offensive Line

John Zernhelt is the only Maryland graduate on the coaching staff and also is in his first year as Coach Joe Krivak hired him to replace Ralph Friedgen the only coach to join Bobby Ross at Georgia Tech.

Zernhelt earned three letters as an offensive tackle at Maryland while Krivak was an assistant coach on the staff, 1974-76.

He had served as the line coach at East Carolina for the past five years.

After receiving his degree in Distributive Education in the spring of '77 he joined the coaching staff at Ferrum College in Virginia.

While at Ferrum he coached four Coastal Conference Championship teams and a National Junior College Championship team. He moved to Marshall for one year, 1981, before moving on to East Carolina. The Pirates were ranked seventeenth in the nation in 1983.

Zernhelt saw three of his offensive linemen move on to the National Football League and two to the USFL. Guard Terry Long was a consensus All-American in 1983 and is currently with the Pittsburgh Steelers in the NFL.

Zernhelt lettered on three bowl teams for the Terrapins, the Liberty, Gator and Cotton. He made his first start as a sophomore against Virginia in Charlottesville and then started the next game against Tennessee in the Liberty Bowl. He had starts at both strongside and quickside tackle for the Terps and when he left only two Terrapins, Mike Yeates and Randy White, had recorded a higher bench press.

He came to Maryland from Greenbrier Military Academy and played his high school football at Minersville Area High in Pennsylvania. His home was in nearby Newtown, Pa.

He played his senior year as a 6-foot 2, 240 pound tackle. He returns to Maryland 10 years later as a 6-foot 2, 240 pound line coach.

He was born in Pottsville, Pa, on January 4, 1954. His wife Katie is a native of Ferrum, Virginia.

MEDICAL STAFF

Dr. Stanford A. Lavine (Maryland '50)
Team Physician

Dr. Lavine, for 27 years has been the University's Team Physician and Orthopedic Surgeon. He has medically supervised athletes in all of the University's sports programs, which now number 23.

He is with the football team at all games, home and away, and attends all the home basketball games and many away games. His office is on call at all times when the trainers call for him to see an athlete. In all these years, Dr. Lavine has missed only 5 Maryland football games.

He is considered one of the nation's top Orthopedic Surgeons and is most prominent in the field of "Sports Medicine." He has an annual clinic which attracts the top Orthopedic Surgeons and athletic team doctors in the country. His reputation has brought him numerous professional athletes of all sports, men and women, for surgery and treatment.

Dr. Lavine was the team physician for the Washington Redskins 1975 - 1985. He also was the team physician for the Washington Bullets, 1973-79. Thus, his trophy mantle glitters with 5 Maryland ACC Championships rings, 2 Redskin Super Bowl rings, and one NBA Championship ring while with the Bullets.

Out of Pittsburgh's (PA) Schenley High School, he had scholarship offers from the University of Kentucky and West Virginia before choosing Maryland. In his first year as the Terp quarterback, he played for the legendary Clark Shaughnesy. Playing for the late Jim Tatum his junior year, he led the Terps to a 9-1 record including a 20-7 win over Missouri in the Gator Bowl in which he threw for two touchdowns.

Following graduation from the University's Medical School, he interned in Philadelphia and Cleveland, served two years in the Air Force then began his medical practice at Washington Hospital Center. He now works out of the Center and Sibley Hospital.

John J. Bush (Florida State '69)
Head Trainer

J. J. Bush joined the Maryland Training Staff in 1972 and took over the Head Trainer's duties in 1978. He has the overall responsibility for 23 varsity sports.

He came to Maryland from the U.S. Army where he served with the Airborne Rangers. He holds a Private Pilot's license and enjoys flying when he has the opportunity.

J. J. has hosted several Cramer Student Trainer Workshops at Maryland and is active in the National Athletic Trainers Association especially in the area of improving training on the high school level. In 1981 he was appointed as the District III representative to the National Association's Committee on Licensure. In 1981 he was also elected President of the Maryland Athletic Trainer Association, a group he helped organize in 1980. He and his wife Gina have a son Jordan 3½ years old, and he has a stepson, Brandon Cole 10.

Robert James Weir
Assistant Trainer

Jim Weir joined the Maryland Training staff in 1970 after serving 10 years in the United States Navy. He served as a trainer for three years at the Naval Academy under Red Romo as a Hospitalman 2nd Class in the Navy.

Since joining the Terps, in addition to his duties with the football team, he has served as the Head Basketball trainer, and worked with most of the men's sports. He has served as the trainer for the Terrapins National Champion Lacrosse teams and the wrestling teams.

A native of Chelsa, Michigan, he attended Olivet College, prior to entering the Navy and is a graduate of the Navy Physical Therapy Technical School.

Jim and his wife Merlene have two sons, James Andrew, 24, and Robert Joseph, 21, and daughter Christina Eileen, 17. Jim and Robert both attended the University. Robert is in his fourth year with the UM Marching Band. He was a member of the University's All-American Marching Band for President Ronald Reagan's Inauguration.

Frank Grimaldi, Jr.
Assistant Trainer

Frank Grimaldi joined the Maryland training staff in time for the 1983 football season. He and his wife Mary Kay are both Northern Illinois graduates. Both also earned their Master's degrees from Northern Illinois while Mary Kay also has a M.B.A. from DePaul.

Frank was a fine athlete himself as he captained the Ridgewood High cross country and track teams winning MVP honors in track.

Frank works full time with football during the season and through all of spring practice. During the winter season, he serves as the Head Basketball Trainer.

He was born in Chicago 1 7 56 with his hometown, Norridge, Illinois.

1986 IN REVIEW

PITTSBURGH (Pitt Stadium, Sept. 1) Maryland's opening game before a national television audience on ESPN was a defensive struggle as both teams threatened and Pitt outgained Maryland 347 yards to 257. However, neither team was able to to score throughout the first half. The Terps took a 7-0 lead with 2:15 remaining in the third quarter, when Tommy Neal capped a nine play, 54-yard drive with a one yard touchdown run. Dan Plocki kicked the extra point. Then, a 32-yard touchdown pass by the Panthers and coversion with 5:12 left in the game tied it, 7-7. But Plocki kicked a 29-yarder with 2:06 remaining to give Maryland the 10-7 win. It was the end of a nine play, 52-yard march; Terp quarterback Dan Henning, who made his college debut completing 12 of 26 passes for 166 yards, hit Azizuddin Abdur-Ra'oof with an important third-down 15-yard completion during the drive.

VANDERBILT (Byrd Stadium, Sept. 13) In the inaugural game under Maryland's new lighting system at Byrd Stadium, the Terps prevailed, 35-21. Vanderbilt opened the scoring with a first quarter field goal but Maryland unleashed 21 unanswered second quarter points to take a 21-3 halftime lead. On three long drives, Tommy Neal ran 21 yards around the left side for a score, Stephon Scriber darted one yard for a touchdown, and Dan Henning threw a 17-yard touchdown pass to Ferrell Edmunds. In the third quarter, Vanderbilt cut the lead 21-13 with a four yard touchdown pass and 39-yard field goal. But the Terps iced the game with 14 ensuing points. First, Scriber capped a five play, 78-yard march by bursting up the center for a 17-yard touchdown run and, then, Henning finished an 80-yard drive 6:18 into the quarter with a 21-yard strike to Azizuddin Abdur-Ra'oof. Vanderbilt scored another touchdown to account for the final 14-point margin. Henning had an excellent outing, completing 23 of 31 passes for 315 yards and two touchdowns. He was named the ACC Offensive Player of the week.

WEST VIRGINIA (Mountaineer Field, Sept. 20) Maryland gained its third consecutive win over this neighboring, interstate rival before 63,500 fans. It was a very physical game and West Virginia hurt itself by missing four field goals. The Terps opened the scoring with an 8-yard march in the first quarter. Dan Henning completed two 17-yard passes to move them into Mountaineer territory and, five plays later, found Ferrell Edmunds for a three-yard score. Dan Plocki kicked the conversion with 4:18 left in the period. Maryland executed another 80-yard drive in the second quarter, but it stalled on West Virginia's eight and Plocki kicked a 26-yard field goal 6:19 before halftime for a 10-0 lead. The Mountaineers kicked a field goal of their own late in the third period and, on the ensuing drive, the Terps were forced to punt. But Maryland's Scott Saylor recovered a crucial fumble on West Virginia's 23. After a holding penalty, Henning threw a 34 yard touchdown pass to Edmunds and Plocki converted for a 17-3 lead. An Alvin Blount touchdown run in the final period gave the Terps the 24-3 victory. The Terps snapped a five-game Mountaineer winning streak, extended theirs to six and gave coach Bobby Ross his best start (3-0) in five seasons as a Maryland coach.

NORTH CAROLINA STATE (Byrd Stadium, Sept. 27) A string of 17 consecutive ACC wins by Maryland was broken as the Wolfpack defeated the Terps, 28-16. The game was nearly equal on offense; Maryland outgained N.C. State 431-427 and both teams had 24 first downs. Neither team scored in the opening period and the Terps lit the scoreboard with a five-yard touchdown run by Alvin Blount 11:15 before intermission. The Wolpack made it 7-7 on the ensuing drive with an 18-yard touchdown pass but Dan Plocki kicked a 44-yard field goal to give Maryland a 10-7 lead at the half. Dan Henning completed four straight passes leading to that score. Plocki booted another field goal in the third period but a 55-yard drive by the Wolfpack resulted in a touchdown and 14-13 lead 1:18 into the final quarter. Later, N.C. State threw a touchdown pass for a 21-13 edge and Plocki coverted a 35-yard field goal (21-16). Maryland regained possession after forcing a punt, but a Henning pass was intercepted on Maryland's 38 with 2:47 left, setting up The Wolfpack's final touchdown, a one-yard run. The Terps suffered a severe setback in their receiving corps as star Azizuddin Abdur-Ra'oof ruptured an achilles tendon. He was lost for the season. Henning set school records in completions (27), most attempts (54) and most total plays in a game (62).

BOSTON COLLEGE (Byrd Stadium, Oct. 11) Before a crowd of 45,380, the Eagles throttled the Terps with their passing game, completing 26 of 36 for 401 yards and three touchdowns. It helped BC prevail, 30-25. The first quarter went scoreless but the Eagles put together an 80-yard march, capping it with a five-yard touchdown run 5:39 into the second period. On its next possession, BC kicked a 39-yard field goal after a 71-yard drive to hold a 10-0 lead at halftime. Maryland scored on its first second half drive as Tommy Neal ran over from one-yard out. However, the Eagles struck back with touchdown passes of 24 and 90 yards and held a 23-7 lead entering the fourth period. The Terps countered with a touchdown run by Stephon Scriber and conversion by Dan Plocki (23-14). Next, BC missed a field goal and Plocki kicked a 20-yarder, trimming the lead, 23-17. But the Eagles retaliated immediately with another touchdown pass—this time 46 yards—and took a 30-17 cushion with 2:07 remaining. Then, Dan Henning threw a 17-yard touchdown pass to James Milling and a two-point conversion run by Alvin Blount made it 30-25. Maryland regained the ball with 15 seconds left but BC intercepted a pass to clinch the win.

WAKE FOREST (Byrd Stadium, Oct. 18) A 27-point, 254-yard outburst in the first half was enough for Wake Forest as it held on to defeat Maryland, 27-21, in an ACC contest. The win snapped a six-game Terrapin winning streak over the Demon Deacons. The fumble recoveries by Wake Forest in Maryland territory helped lead the Demon Deacons to a 13-0 first quarter lead. Then, 24 seconds into the second period, they scored again on a two-yard touchdown run. Later in the quarter, Wake Forest held the ball for 6:10 on a 15-play, 93-yard touchdown drive, giving the Demon Deacons a 27-0 halftime lead. But the Terps didn't fold. An interception by Chuck Faucette gave them possession at midfield and, three plays later, Dan Henning threw a 40-yard touchdown pass to Vernon Joines. Dan Plocki's conversion trimmed the lead, 27-7. Maryland's defense stiffened and the Terps scored another touchdown with 9:20 left in the game on a 19-yard Henning pass to Alvin Blount. After Wake Forest was forced to punt, Maryland drove 54 yards in four plays, capped with a 13-yard touchdown pass by Henning to Sean Sullivan. Plocki's conversion made it, 27-21, with 6:12 remaining. The Terps had one more possession, driving from the Wake Forest 43 to gain a first and goal at the seven. Three rushes couldn't get it over the goal line and a fourth down pass by Henning was intercepted. The loss was Maryland's third straight, leaving them with a 3-3 record, 0-2 in the ACC.

DUKE (Wallace Wade Stadium, Oct. 25) Maryland gained its 13th consecutive win over Duke and its first ACC win of the season, 27-19. Kevin Walker's 16-yard interception return for a touchdown with 6:45 left to play accounted for the final margin. Dan Henning gave an impressive performance, completing 14 of 24 passes for 166 yards and two touchdowns. His first one came at the end of Maryland's first possession, with a 35-yard pass to James Milling. Dan Plocki converted and then kicked 42 and 48-yard field goals to give the Terps a 13-0 lead at the end of the first quarter. The Blue Devils kicked a 34-yard field goal but, midway through the second period, Henning found Milling again, this time from nine yards out and Maryland had a 20-3 halftime lead. Duke made a comeback; the Blue Devils scored 10 points in the third period and then added another touchdown and conversion with 9:42 remaining to come within 21-20. But, Walker sealed the win with his interception return for a touchdown. The win snapped a three-game losing streak for Maryland and put its record at 4-3, 1-2 in ACC competition.

NORTH CAROLINA (Kenan Stadium, Nov. 1) Maryland had won four straight over North Carolina and five of the last six in Kenan Stadium. But, this time the Tar Heels escaped with a 32-30 victory, leaving Maryland with a 1-3 record in the ACC. The first quarter went scoreless but North Carolina scored 20 consecutive points in the second period before the Terps scored. Dan Henning, who had another outstanding afternoon, going 18 of 29 for 367 yards (school record) and three touchdowns, found James Milling for a 77-yard touchdown bomb with 17 seconds remaining in the half. It was Milling's first of three touchdown receptions, a school record. He was voted ACC Offensive Player of the Week. Dan Plocki's extra point made it 20-7 at intermission. Maryland scored on its first possession of the second half, driving 76 yards in nine plays. Stephon Scriber ran two yards for a touchdown and Plocki's conversion trimmed the lead, 20-14. On the ensuing possession, Kevin Walker recovered a fumble at the Tar Heels 40 and Plocki kicked a 36-yard field goal nine plays later. North Carolina returned with a field goal but a 76-yard, eight play march by Maryland ended with a touchdown catch by Milling. Plocki's extra point gave Maryland a 24-23 lead with 13:21 left to play. However, the Tar Heels came back with their own time consuming drive 14 plays, 68 yards, 6:11—that resulted in a touchdown. A two-point conversion failed, leaving North Carolina ahead, 29-24. Milling's third touchdown catch from Henning, an 88-yarder, gave the Terps a 30-29 lead. But the Tar Heels drove 69 yards with time running out and kicked a 28-yard field goal with :04 remaining to earn the two-point win.

PENN STATE (Beaver Stadium, Nov. 8) Penn State extended its winning streak to 22 games against Maryland with a 17-15 victory before 85, 651 fans, the fifth largest crowd in Penn State history. The Nittany Lions scored first on a touchdown run with 7:05 left in the second period to take a 7-0 lead. The Terps returned with an 18-yard field goal by Dan Plocki in the third period to cut the lead to 7-3. It capped an 11-play, 60-yard drive. Then, in the fourth quarter, a pass by Dan Henning was picked off deep in Maryland territory. Penn State rushed for a touchdown on the next play and a conversion gave it a 14-3 lead with 8:14 remaining. But, on the ensuing possession, the Terps went 73 yards in 10 plays and Henning threw a 16-yard touchdown pass to Vernon Joines. A two point conversion failed. The Nittany Lions kicked a 36-yard field goal with 1:04 left to go ahead, 17-9. However, Maryland didn't fold, driving 76 yards in eight plays, mostly on the arm of Henning. He completed five passes, the finale a 27-yarder to John Bonato. But, Henning's two-point conversion pass missed the hands of James Milling and Penn State defeated Maryland for the 29th time in the 30 games between the teams. The game was very close offensively; both teams had 20 first downs and Maryland outgained the Nittany Lions 412 yards to 350. The Terps have lost by a total of 13 points to Penn State in their last four games.

CLEMSON (Memorial Stadium, Baltimore, Nov. 15) CBS televised this game regionally as Maryland vyed for its third straight win over Clemson. But, a last second field goal by the Tigers created a 17-17 tie. A crowd of 58,758 in Baltimore's Memorial Stadium saw the Terps score first when Tommy Neal finished a 49-yard drive with a one-yard touchdown run. Dan Plocki's extra point gave Maryland a 7-0 advantage 13:19 into the first period. The Tigers tied it in the second quarter with a touchdown run and the teams went into halftime tied, 7-7. Clemson took a 14-7 lead on its opening second-half drive, but Maryland drove 66 yards in 15 plays on its next possession and cut the lead, 14-10, on a 22-yard Plocki field goal. Then, in the fourth period, the Terps' defense came up with a big play as Tommy Parker recovered a fumble on Clemson's six. In three plays, Maryland scored as Neal rushed over from one yard out. The conversion by Plocki gave the Terps a 17-14 lead with 9:05 remaining. Later, the Tigers took the ball with 7:01 left on their own eight and executed an outstanding drive. They converted three third downs and one fourth down to eventually set up the game tying, 21-yard field goal with :02 remaining. Clemson clinched the 1986 ACC title with the tie, breaking Maryland's string of three straight conference crowns. Despite the loss, Dan Henning set single season school records: most completions (203), yards passing (2565), total offense (2513 yards).

VIRGINIA (Scott Stadium, Nov. 28) In a nationally-televised game on CBS, Maryland took a 17-point, first half lead and never looked back for a 42-10 ACC win. The Terps finished the season with a 5-5-1 record, 2-3-1 in the ACC. A 71-yard touchdown run by Bren Lowery and Dan Plocki's extra point gave Maryland a 7-0 lead. Other touchdown runs by Dan Henning and Tommy Neal, his first of three, gave the Terps a 21-3 lead at intermission. The Cavaliers countered with a touchdown run. But, Neal scored two more times in the third period and Alvin Blount ran four yards for a touchdown in the fourth period to account for the win. Lowery led Maryland in rushing with 104 yards, while Henning gave another solid performance. He closed his first full season at quarterback by completing 14 of 22 passes for 170 yards.

Neil O'Donnell looks to the future

University of Maryland

The University of Maryland, located in College Park, Maryland, was founded in 1807 as the College of Medicine of Maryland. The name was changed in 1812 to the University of Maryland and in 1920 it was merged with the Maryland State College. The current enrollment of students on the College Park campus totals 38,307. The University is located just north of our nation's capital, Washington, D.C. Visitors to the University of Maryland will be sure to find (clockwise from upper left) the Maryland Chapel, Main Administrative Building, Hornbake Library and the Glenn L. Martin Institute of Technology (the engineering building).

Dr. John S. Toll

President

As president of a major research University with five campuses and 88,400 students worldwide, John S. Toll is dedicated to strengthening excellence in teaching, research, and public service. Under his leadership, the University has developed programs of high quality, has attracted outstanding faculty and students, and has built partnerships with industry, government, schools, and other institutions.

In the past few years, milestones in the University's progress have included two Pulitzer Prizes for faculty members and important developments in medical research and treatment, in biotechnology, and in many other areas, among them:

- The National Science Foundation awarded the College Park campus a $16 million grant to establish a Systems Research Center, one of six national centers of excellence in engineering.
- The University's Center of Marine Biotechnology, located in Baltimore, has received a $6.695 million, five-year federal grant.
- The U.S. Department of Education awarded the College of Education a $6.5 million, five-year grant to establish a Center for Research on Postsecondary Education Management and Governance.
- Philanthropic support for academic programs at the University has reached a new high of over $12 million annually.
- The arts flourish at Maryland, including the highly acclaimed Handel Festival; the traveling performances of "Shakespeare on Wheels," and the world renowned University of Maryland Piano Festival and William Kapell Competition.

John Toll graduated from Yale, 1944, with highest honors and earned his advanced degrees in physics at Princeton. During his distinguished career as a theoretical physicist and educator, for 12 years he chaired the physics department at the College Park campus and led it to national prominence. He then served as president of the State University of New York at Stony Brook from 1965 to 1978, when he returned to Maryland to become the University's 22nd president. An avid jogger and tennis player, Dr. Toll and his wife Deborah have two daughters.

(If you would like to learn more about the University of Maryland under the leadership of Dr. Toll, write for his 1985-86 annual report to: The University of Maryland Central Administration, Office of University Publications, 3300 Metzerott Road, Adelphi, MD 20783.)

John Brooks Slaughter, the third Chancellor of the College Park Campus, is a distinguished scientist and a dedicated humanitarian as well as an able administrator. His research specialities are in the fields of electrical engineering and computer systems. His accomplishments in these fields have brought him high recognition. He is a Fellow in the Institute of Electrical and Electronic Engineers and the American Association for the Advancement of Science. He holds membership in the National Academy of Engineering, was selected U.C.L.A. Engineering Alumnus of the Year (1978), received the Distinguished Service Award from the National Science Foundation (1979), and was recognized for Distinguished Service in Engineering by Kansas State University (1981). Presently he is chairman of the powerful NCAA President's Commission.

Dr. John Brooks Slaughter

Chancellor

Since his undergraduate days Dr. Slaughter has been active in humanitarian affairs. As chapter president of Zeta Sigma Lambda Chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc., (San Diego) from 1957 to 1959 he participated in cultural, social, and educational activities directed toward the enhancement of the black community in San Diego. As president of the Board of Directors of the San Diego Urban League he was concerned with providing equal opportunities in education, employment, housing, and social services.

Prior to assuming his responsibilities at the University of Maryland he served as Academic Vice President and Provost at Washington State University and as Director of the National Science Foundation. In his inauguration address to the College Park campus on May 3, 1983, he set the course for his administration: "I want to see this campus continue its vigorous pursuit of academic excellence while reaching out to a more diversified student body. I want the University of Maryland at College Park to set a national standard for excellence and equality. As we pursue these goals, we must also enhance our contributions to the State. Finally, I am committed to a university that is a community, a community that takes pride in itself and touches each person involved in the campus with pride."

Dr. Betty F. Smith/Chairperson, Athletic Council
Faculty Representative for Athletic Department

Dr. Smith was appointed as Chairperson of the Athletic Council by Chancellor John Slaughter on June 1, 1985, succeeding Dr. Charles A. Taff, who had held the position since 1978. Slaughter's appointment made Dr. Smith the first female to hold such a position in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Dr. Smith came to Maryland in August, 1970, as Professor and Chairman of the Department of Textiles and Consumer Economics, a position she holds today. Prior to joining the Maryland staff, she served as a member of the faculty of Cornell University.

A native of Arkansas, Dr. Smith obtained her B.S. degree at the University of Arkansas in 1951. Six years later she received an M.S. degree from Tennessee, and was awarded her Ph.D. in Textiles from Minnesota. Dr. Smith earned a second Ph.D. in Biochemistry at Minnesota in 1965.

In 1971, Dr. Smith was elected a fellow of the Textile Institute. She belongs to many professional societies, including the American Chemical Society, Sigma Xi, the Fiber Society, and the American Economics Association. With approximately 70 publications and papers from research in Textiles to her credit, Dr. Smith is also the co-author of the book Introduction to Textiles (Smith and I. Block), published by Prentice-Hall in 1982. In 1984, Dr. Smith was named a distinguished Alumna of Southern University. Since coming to Maryland, she has served on many departments and College and University committees.

When having time to relax from her heavy load of academic responsibilities, Dr. Smith is an avid golfer.

Kevin Weiberg
Associate Athletic Director

Kevin Weiberg had been on the athletics staff at the Wichita State University for eight years and had held the post of associate athletic director for marketing and fund-raising with responsibility for all external areas of the athletic department since January of 1986.

As the associate director, Weiberg is closely involved with the day-to-day administration of the athletic department. Among his major responsibilities was directing the Shocker Athletic Scholarship Organization, a $1 million annual support program for Shocker athletics.

Weiberg, 31, also was responsible for developing the overall marketing plan for the athletic department; supervising the ticker office and sports information operations; developing fund-raising efforts related to facility improvements and new athletics facility construction; scheduling contests in football and men's and women's basketball; negotiating radio and television contracts; developing athletic department annual budgets, particularly related to revenue projections; and monitoring daily department revenue expenditure reports.

Prior to his promotion to associate director, Weiberg served from 1983-85 as assistant director for marketing and fund-raising. At that time he took over direction of SASO and helped increase the level of donations to record levels.

He went to Wichita State in 1980 as sports information director, a position he held for three years before assuming the title of assistant director under Athletic Director Lew Perkins. Weiberg worked as sports information director at Wayne State College in Nebraska for a year prior to joining the staff at Wichita State.

A native of Anthony, Kan., Weiberg earned his degree in education from Kansas State University in 1978 and recieved his master's degree in athletic administration from Western Illinois University in 1979.

Weiberg and his wife, Susan, have a daughter, Erika.

Charles G. "Lefty" Driesell (Duke '54)
Assistant Athletic Director

Following his resignation last October as the Terrapins basketball coach, Driesell was named to the staff as assistant athletic director to work with various areas within the department.

Driesell closed out his 17-years as the most successful coach in the 63 years of Maryland basketball. His Terrapin career record was 338 wins and 159 losses. Prior to his coming to Maryland, he coached at Davidson nine years. His 26-year totals were 524-224.

In his 17 years, Driesell's teams won 20 or more games ten times. He took the Terps to five ACC championship games, winning the coveted ACC crown in 1984. His teams were selected to the NCAA tournament eight times and advanced to the "Final 16", twice.

Born on Christmas Day, 1931, Driesell was a three-sport athlete at Granby High School, Norfolk, Va. He was a 1954 Duke graduate, achieving the Dean's List honors while receiving his B.A. Degree. He later received his Master's in Education at William & Mary College.

Jeff Hathaway (Maryland '81)
Assistant Athletic Director

Jeff Hathaway assumed the duties of assistant athletic director in 1986, replacing Frank Gray, who retired after serving in many capacities at Maryland since 1943.

Hathaway had previously served as business manager. After graduating from Maryland, he went directly to the Chicago White Sox, where he served as director of community relations. While with the White Sox, Hathaway arranged all public appearances and speaking engagements for players in 1981 and 1982. He came to Maryland as an undergraduate from DeMatha High, where he served as basketball manager and assistant trainer for coach Morgan Wooten. Hathaway also acted as student trainer for two years with the Maryland basketball team, and for two years with the football team.

Hathaway did his public relations internship with the Washington Redskins during their 1980 training camp, under the tutelage of current assistant sports information director Joe Blair. He received his B.S. in Athletic Administration through the Individual Studies program. Hathaway is a certified emergency medical technician.

Gothard Lane (Randolph-Macon '71)
Assistant Athletic Director

Gothard Lane assumed the duties of assistant athletic director for non-revenue sports in March, 1982.

He began his career at Maryland in 1973, when he was hired by football coach Jerry Claiborne as a defensive backfield coach, a job he held for four years. From 1977 to 1982, Lane held the position of administrative assistant to the director of athletics, and director of recruiting.

As assistant AD, Lane holds administrative responsibility for all men's and women's non-revenue sports.

Robert T. Stumpff (Maryland '68)
Assistant Athletic Director

Bob Stumpff returned to the Terrapin athletic department in July, 1980, as assistant athletic director for business affairs. He now supervises the game-day activities of Byrd Stadium and Cole Field House and is responsible for the daily operation of all athletic facilities, including security and scheduling.

Stumpff came to Maryland from Lewistown, Pa., where he was on the wrestling and track teams. As an undergraduate at Maryland, he was manager of the wrestling team before receiving his degree in Transportation Administration in June, 1968. Upon graduation, he was named administrative assistant to the director of athletics, Jim Kehoe. From September, 1969 to July, 1980, Stumpff served as associate director of the Maryland Student Union. He is a 1978 graduate of the University of Kentucky's College of Business Management Institute.

Since 1970, Stumpff has been a member of the Board of Governors of the M Club and is presently an advisor to the Sigma Circle of Omicron Delta Kappa. Stumpff is also a member of the College of Athletic Business Managers Associates.

Thomas M. Fields (Maryland '42)
Executive Director Educational Foundation

Col. Tom Fields has served as executive director of the Maryland Educational Foundation since 1970, when he retired as a Colonel in the United States Marine Corps.

During the last year, the funds generated by the Educational Foundation totaled more than $2.6 million. The membership of the Terrapin Club has expanded to 3,805 with 110 lifetime members ($10,000 contribution), 176 Super Terrapins ($2,500 annual contribution) 535 Diamondbackers ($1,500 annual contribution) and 689 Gold Members ($750 annual contribution).

More than 50 percent of all contributors did not attend Maryland, but all are strong supporters of the university, the NCAA, and the principles of competition.

The funds provided by the foundation have enabled the Terps to develop one of the best women's athletic programs in the nation. All funds go to scholarships; the scholarship programs for the female athletes is equal to the program for men's non-revenue sports.

Fields was a track star for the Terps as an undergraduate and helped lead Maryland to one of its finest days ever at the Penn Relays, as the Terps won three Championship of America relays. During World War II, Fields served in combat on Guadalcanal, Vella Lavella, Bouganville, and Iowa Jima. He also served in Korea and Vietnam. At the time of his retirement from the Corps, Fields was Deputy Director of Information, Headquarters, Marine Corps.

Frank Costello (Maryland '68)
Strength and Conditioning Coach

Frank Costello assumed the position as assistant to the athletic director in 1981, and is in charge of the strength and conditioning program for the entire athletic department.

No stranger to Maryland, Costello was an All-America high jumper for the Terps from 1965-1968 and served as assistant track coach for six years after graduation. He was named head track coach in 1974, a position he held for seven years. He developed several world-class track starts, including world record holder hurdler Renaldo Nehemiah.

Costello came to Maryland as the New Jersey high jump champion and record holder in 1963, and was undefeated in ACC, IC4A and NCAA competition in 1965, winning both NCAA titles. While competing with Maryland, he also won seven titles in the Penn Relays, the Milrose Games, the Eastern European Championships, the Southern Hemisphere Games and the French National Championship. He was ranked third in the world in 1966.

In addition to coaching track and field, Costello has published several articles on training techniques. He served as a conditioning consultant for the NFL's Green Bay Packers from 1977-80, and has served as high jump coach for the Olympic Development Program.

John W. Zane (Maryland '60)
Sports Information Director

Entering his 19th year as sports information director at Maryland and his 28th year in sports information, Jack Zane was accorded the highest honor in his field last summer, when he was selected to the CoSIDA Hall of Fame by past members of the Hall.

Zane returned to Maryland in August, 1969, after serving as SID at The George Washington University for six years. He received his degree in Journalism from Maryland in February, 1960, after serving as student assistant to Joe Blair for three years. He served as Blair's full-time assistant for two years after graduation. While at Maryland, Zane was the first executive sports editor of the Diamondback, SMC of Pi Kappa Alpha and a member of the Sigma Delta Chi journalism fraternity.

He served seven years as a member of the NCAA Public Relations Committee and one year as a member of the NCAA public relations/promotions committee. Zane has been a member of CoSIDA for 27 years, and was elevated to the Presidency of CoSIDA at the 1985 meeting in Boston. Zane is also a member of the Football, Basketball and Baseball Writers of America, the Maryland Chapter of Sigma Delta Chi, the Atlantic Coast Conference Sportswriters and the Washington, D.C. Touchdown Club, as well as a Diamondback Member of the Terrapin Club.

A graduate of Southern (Harwood) High in Lothion, Zane is a native of Maryland and served 4½ years in the Navy before enrolling at Maryland. He is married to the former Judy Allen of Fayetteville, W. Va. and a graduate of The George Washington University.

Joseph F. Blair (Maryland '50)
Assistant Sports Information Director

Joe Blair returned to Maryland in August, 1983, where he began his public relations career 33 years before. He served as sports information director at Maryland for 13 years before joining the Washington Redskins as public relations director and head of media relations.

He has worked with the NFL Players Association, assisted at Maryland and served as a consultant for the U.S. Football League Washington Federals during his 37 years in the area.

Joe spent a total of 18 years with the Redskins, retiring after earning his Super Bowl ring in 1982, when the Redskins defeated the Miami Dolphins. He has worked with a National Championship team at Maryland (1953) and served as an assistant to the NFL at 12 Super Bowls. The "Blair Lounge" at the nearby Ledo restaurant was named after him in 1956.

In returning to Maryland four years ago, Blair rejoined Jack Zane, whom he lured to the field as a Maryland student. He served as Best Man at Zane's 1966 wedding. A product of the Missouri School of Journalism, Blair is a veteran of World War II (Air Force) and a native of Freeport, Pa.

NATIONAL FOOTBALL FOUNDATION COLLEGE HALL OF FAME

Three former Terrapins have been inducted into the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame and enshrined at the Hall of Fame in Kings Island, Ohio.

The first University of Maryland player to be selected was Robert "Bob" Ward, the Terrapins All-American lineman and four year letterman (1948-51). Ward was inducted in 1980.

Quarterback Jack Scarbath was inducted in December of 1983. Scarbath in addition to All-American honors was runnerup for the Heisman Award in 1952 after leading Maryland to a 28-13 win over National Champion Tennesse in the Jan. 1, 1952 Sugar Bowl.

The late James M. Tatum was selected for the Hall of Fame in 1984. Tatum led the Terps to the National Championship in 1953 and in nine years as the Maryland coach recorded a 73-15-4 record. While also serving as Director of Athletics he took the Terrapins to the Gator Bowl twice (1948 and 1950) the Sugar Bowl 1952 and the Orange Bowl twice (1954 and 1956).

TERRAPIN NOTES

JACOBS BLOCKING TROPHY: Maryland has won the ACC's Jacobs blocking trophy three times. Those winning the award voted on by the league's coaching staffs are Dave Pacella in 1982, Ralph Sonntag in 1969 and Bob Pellegrini in 1955.

FUTURE SCHEDULES: Pittsburgh and Boston College do not return to the 1987 schedule with the Terrapins visiting Syracuse and Miami. The Maryland schedule becomes relatively stable in 1988 when Georgia Tech visits College Park. Over the next ten years the Terrapins after adding Georgia Tech to the schedule will have four non-conference games. Penn State and West Virginia are on the schedule all ten years. Pittsburgh appears in eight of the 10 and Syracuse six times. The other opponents are Michigan twice, Boston College twice, Miami, Vanderbilt and Virginia Tech.

EARLY TELEVISION FOR THE TERPS: According to Dick Lamb, historian of the Football Writers Association, the first regularly scheduled college football game to be televised was the Penn-Maryland game of October 5, 1940. According to the BOSTON GLOBE—The first known commercially televised college football game was played between Penn and Maryland on Oct. 5, 1940 at Franklin Field, Philadelphia before a crowd of 40,000. Penn walloped Maryland 51-0 with triple threat back Fran Reagan and sophomore Jack Welsh each scoring twice. It was televised to some 200 homes by WPTZ in Philadelphia. A few college games had been televised in the late 1930's but only on an experimental basis.

AZIZUDDIN ABDUR-RA'OOF established a school record for consecutive games catching a pass at 25 games. He actually caught a pass in each of his first 27 games but bowl games do not count in the statistics. He was shut out for the first time when he ruptured his achilles tendon in the first half of the 1986 North Carolina State game.

ACC HONOR ROLL: Maryland qualified 103 athletes for the ACC Honor Roll in 1986-87. Among those qualifying with a 3.0 grade point average or better were six football players including Co-Captain Bob Arnold the starting nose guard. Starting offensive tackle John Sorna and reserve fullback Richard Shure were also on the list. Sorna and Shure were All-ACC Academic Football Team selections in 1986. Azizuddin Abdur-Ra'oof joined the list as he received his degree and has enrolled in graduate school. Ken Oberle, a freshman Engineering major made the list in his first attempt. Steve Harmon a reserve kicker also made the honor roll list. Shure recorded a perfect 4.0 for the school year as an Economics major.

FRESHMEN HONORED: Ken Oberle and Glenn Page were honored by Omicron Delta Kappa with "Top Ten Freshmen/Sophomore Leader of the Year" awards for 1986-87. ODK, a National Leadership Honor Society presented the awards at the Campus Awards Banquet in the spring. Both are fron Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

SPRING FOOTBALL AWARDS: Bob Arnold and Bill Hughes were elected Co-Captains by the Terrapins following spring practice. Arnold is the starting nose guard on defense while Hughes is the starting center.

Arnold also shared the "Maryland Way" award with Quarterback Dan Henning and the "Tough Terp" award with linebacker Scott Saylor. The coaching staff voted on the "Maryland Way" award while the team voted on the Co-Captains and "Tough Terp" award.

PENN STATE SELLOUT: When the Maryland - Penn State football game sold out in July it marked the fourteenth consecutive year the game has been a sellout. The 1987 game will be played in Baltimore's Memorial Stadium, the fourth consecutive year the Terps have played a game in Baltimore.

All-American Quarterback Jack Scarbath

INFORMATION FOR MEDIA VISITING COLLEGE PARK

INTERVIEWS

PLAYERS: It is requested that all player interviews be arranged through the Sports Information Office. We will make every attempt to have the players call you at a designated time or be available for an interview on campus. Please make request at least a day in advance so we can arrange with the athletes at practice. On many class days it is impossible to get in touch with them until they show up at practice.

HOME GAMES: Coach Krivak will meet the media in the Team Meeting Room on the first floor of the Football Building about 10 minutes after the game. Key players will also be available in this area following Coach Krivak. The visiting coach will meet the Media in room adjacent to the visiting locker room.

TUESDAY PRESS LUNCHEON: Coach Krivak and Athletic Department officials will attend a weekly luncheon each Tuesday during the season on Campus. Coach Krivak will be available from 11:45 to 1:15 or upon completion of the interviews. TV and Radio interviews will be accommodated prior to and following the luncheon as requested.

NOTE: For those requesting Tuesday player interviews if classes do not conflict we will have them available in the football lounge at 1:30.

BEST TIME TO CATCH COACH KRIVAK: Tuesday at Luncheon, and Wednesday from Noon to 2:30 P.M.

To The News Media

We hope the 1987 edition of Maryland Football will be helpful as you cover the Terrapins this fall. With this book goes an invitation to visit us as often as possible. Our offices are located in Cole Field House, Room 1145.

We will have several telephones available for your use in the Byrd Stadium Press Box. However, if you wish exclusive use of a telephone please order it through (301) 852-4540 (Jeanne Miller or Bobbie Rye) and we will have it installed at your seat.

Only accredited photographers on assignment and game personnel are permitted on the sidelines. All sideline photographers must check in and pick up an arm-band before going to the field. The arm-bands are available at the west end of the working press section on the second floor of the press box.

Please advise when your order is placed for credentials if you will be transmitting copy from the press box and if you will have equipment with you. The Sports Information Office will have two telecopiers available for use with all copy sent according to deadlines.

Personnel from the Sports Information Office will send your copy and we will be in the press box until all copy has been transmitted.

A play-by-play, halftime and final statistics, scoring summaries and brief post-game comments from the coaches will be provided the working press at all home games.

For additional information and special requests please address all correspondence to the following address for quickest delivery.
